Partnering with Lakeview Church

With the shared belief that we can often do more together than we can alone, Lakeview Church and Grace Missionary Church joined forces for a community-wide Vacation Bible School last summer and a Harvest Dinner in the Fall. Many of our members expressed excitement with the results and encouraged us to explore further avenues of partnership in the new year. We have already discussed a joint Resurrection Sunday breakfast and early service, and other events are under consideration. Since both ministries have a shared history and good working relationship, the Lakeview and Grace Church Boards are also asking the Lord if He would have us take steps toward an actual merger of both churches into one. We don't know all that God may be wanting to do in our ongoing association but are extremely gratified with what we have enjoyed already and excited about what the future may hold for us.

Next Sunday, February 18th we will celebrate Pastor Carlson's birthday with cake during Fellowship Time. Please join us to wish him a Happy Birthday!
