Greetings from Sunbury, August 29, 2018

We want to update everyone on our situation here at Sunbury Christian Camp in South Africa. As you may remember we were scheduled to head back home on the 27th of August. Well that was our plan and it would seem that God has a different time frame for us. That being said, we have canceled our flight home and will extend another four months, hopefully headed home on Christmas Day. In these last months we have been not only doing the projects that we came to do but we have been filling in for Dan and Beth Hoffman while they are back in the U.S. renewing their Visas. Since their return to the states the South African government has put a hold on all volunteer Visas. Needless to say, that was not in the plan, at least ours. However, we hold true to this belief, God alone is in control and we want to be in his will. He tells us in Jeremiah 29:11, "I know the plans I have for you... they are plans for good...". We are so grateful you have been a part of this journey with us. Much has been done here because of your prayers and generosity. We are being bold to ask that you continue to pray for us these next months and if you feel led to help financially it would be put to good use here, it is a camp, and as with all camps, there is much to be done. Please know that every dollar sent will be put into the work here and not for our personal expense. Sunbury is being used every week to spread the gospel and to strengthen the body of Christ. It is a joy to be able to be part of this work. Well that about sums it up. Now you know what we do. Once again thank you for being a part of this journey.

In Christ, Howard and Lynn
