A few of us have been looking for practical ways to “do church right” in the community where God has placed us. We aren’t looking for another “program” to add to our busy lives, or seeking a Committee assignment with agendas, motions and reports.

We want to fulfill Christ’s agenda by the outward “motion” He calls us to in the Great Commission. Any report will be among the people of our community as we declare God’s Truth while demonstrating God’s love in practical ways, showing them and not just telling them that God loves them, just the way they are. We are calling this initiative “Grace OUT,” reflecting the heart of the Savior for our city in ways that provide an outlet for our “Grace IN” ministries within the church’s four walls.

We feel a stirring of the Spirit to do a new thing in the new year. If God is moving your heart along the same lines, come join the conversation on Saturday, February 6 at 9:00 AM, in the Fellowship Hall. Bring your questions, ideas, and personal vision, and let’s see what God can do through us as we put the “out” back into “outreach” and see what He has for us.

(No need to RSVP. The door will be open, the welcome mat out, and a cup of coffee on the table. All you need to do is show up.)
