This year the Zion-Benton Ministerial Association will not be offering a community-wide Good Friday Service. Some of the member churches will be holding their own services and CCC is showing the last Passion Play ever, in this their 75th season. GMC is recommending you choose one of the available services or, if you have not seen the Passion Play (or not for a long time) that you consider attending one of the four times during the week leading up to Easter, including on Good Friday itself, if you would like. Ticket information and times flyers available at the bulletin table in the back.
