Notes and Announcements

April 17, 2022

Thank you Note:

Dear Far-away friends and family,
I can't thank you enough for showering Russ with notes of love and encouragement. The last few weeks of his earthly life were filled with disheartening medical news, so the brightness you brought to his days was priceless. He was deeply touched by the outpouring of support from many he knew growing up as well as many he will never know here on earth. That kind, gracious people from across the continent would care enough to handwrite cards to one they didn't even know was a profound testimony to your compassion, and we are grateful. Just before Russ passed into eternity, he charged our family to love each other intentionally and to share our faith in Jesus boldly. As he looked into eternity, knew that those two things were of utmost importance since we can only take our love for the Lord and for people with us. May the Lord bless you as you seek to know Him and His grace more fully and to share your faith more boldly. Thank you for your prayers and personal notes that lifted Russ's spirits. With gratitude, Tara and Brenlyn Edwards
